STRONG RELATIONSHIPS BUILT ON SUPERIOR CLIENT SERVICE

over 20 years of excellence in private equity investments

At Abbott Capital, everyone is dedicated to client services and to facilitating alignment of interests among the firm, its clients and general partner groups. The stability of Abbott's professionals ensures that relationships with clients and general partners are maintained over the lives of the partnerships. Proprietary, state-of-the-art reporting provides clients with extensive information on their accounts. Abbott recognizes that client service extends beyond reporting and provides additional support, including informational and educational programs.

Abbott Capital takes great pride in its commitment to building outstanding portfolios of private equity investments. Abbott has the expertise and flexibility to provide a range of investment programs depending on each client's private equity investment objectives, size of commitment and portfolio parameters. Abbott's clients participate in private equity investing through the Abbott Capital Private Equity Funds or through a separate account that is tailored to meet the client's diversification and investment objectives.

AT ABBOTT, CLIENTS COME FIRST

- Long-term relationships
